Dear Families,

This week is National Vocations Awareness Week. Fr. John Paul will be visiting the classrooms to talk with students about vocations. In the Catholic church, vocations refer to the ways of life God calls people to live: the ordained life of bishops, priests and deacons; consecrated religious life (monks, nuns, and brothers); marriage; and single life. As parents, this is a great opportunity to talk to your children about the vocation of marriage and what it means in the church and to you and your family.

This week, student altar servers began serving for daily masses here at St. Vincent's. Folks who attend daily mass, have said they appreciate having the students there. Mrs. Brooks' class also began their class service project this week. Students in the Blanchet homeroom are serving as greeters at the 9 and 11am masses on the first Sunday of each month. Thank you!
