39th Annual Parish Auction for Catholic Education (P.A.C.E.) 57 Years of Excellence in Education: 1964-2021

Dear _____,

We are seeking partners like you who share our passion for the well being of our children and community.

St. Vincent de Paul Parish School is a faith-centered school that promotes academic achievement and spiritual development for our students and families. This is reflected in learning, worship and support of each other and service to the community. Our richly diverse school has been providing academic opportunities for our children in preschool through 8th grade.

The Parish Auction for Catholic Education (P.A.C.E.) is planning its annual fundraising auction to raise funds to maintain academic excellence and cover operations expenses and cultural experiences for our students.

The generosity of our sponsors and donors over the years has been awe-inspiring, and we continue to count on their tremendous support. We invite you to showcase your business and your commitment to the Federal Way community with your donation and or sponsorship to our auction, "Brighter Together," being held on March 19, 2022. Here is how you can help:

Contribute a quality item (s) or service (s): Be acknowledged in our auction catalog. Please note that any gift certificates and tickets with an expiration date should be valid for one year from date of the auction.
